How Fairfax Worldwide Works

Multinational insurance you can rely on.

Scrambling to find your policies? Unsure when your next payment is due? Wondering where your claim is at? This is your information and we make it available to you anytime, anywhere. Everything you need in one simple to use and handsomely laid out digital platform.

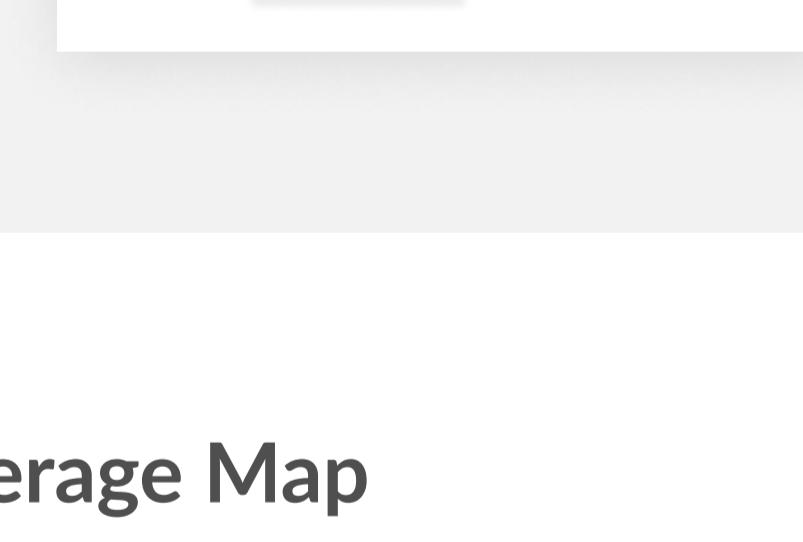

Be confident in your choices.

There is no room for mistakes – gaps in coverage, outdated regulatory requirements or missing documentation. We deliver a modern, data-driven, digital platform that provides accurate information proactively and in real-time.

Move faster.

We know your customers expect you to be responsive, so why shouldn't your insurance provider? Digital estimates, quotes and policy issuance at the speed you need it. No more delayed responses.

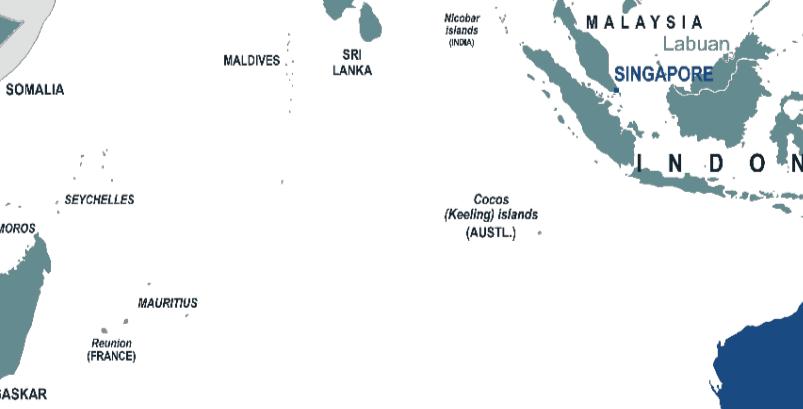

Boutique level service.

We believe one-size doesn't fit all for any of our customers. With our highly configurable and customizable insurance programs, we can work with you to tailor the policy that is right for you. Our multinational specialists work with our global underwriting and claims experts to deliver reliable service around the world.

Protection for your business – anywhere, any line

With 165 countries available in the Fairfax Worldwide network, your coverage and capacity needs will be met with confidence. From property to casualty to professional lines, we have your global insurance needs covered.
